and it worked to perfection. Eaton drew a pass to first and stole second and third, McMahon striking out in the meantime. Shaughnessy was at bat and there were two strikes on him. As the next ball was pitched Eaton started for home, yelling to Shaughnessy to hit it. Shaughnessy stuck out his bat, intending to hit the ball just inside the diamond but instead he made it all the better as the ball just sailed over the first baseman's head for a single and Eaton had squeezed in. Shaughnessy stole second and scored on Stankard's single. Apperious fled out to first.

In the last inning Cotter fanned, and Ray got a single to left field. Boucher made the fourteenth strike out and Duff went out pitcher to first.

Did Up Burlington in Exciting Contest, Score 3 to 2.

Plattsburg, July 1.—There was scoring in only two innings of yesterday's game between Burlington and Plattsburg, and the home team made three to two by Burlington. The contest was red hot throughout, and it was anybody's game up to the last inning.

Games Today.

Intercity at Rutland.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The poor exhibition put up by the Rutlands was a surprise.

Minahan certainly had an off day, which with ragged support made a woeeful combination.

That "squeeze" in the eighth was a dandy.

Stankard's three singles brought in as many runs.

Paddy Duff was easy to steal second on, but you noticed that Rutland batters stuck close to first when they got there. Eaton's throw is a nailer.

In but one inning did more than four men face Burns.

Burns certainly made good with the fans yesterday. The board of managers think he will do.

Boucher of Rutland struck out four times. His batting average didn't raise much.

There is a question if any better exhibition of pitching has ever been shown on the Intercity grounds than the West-corn put up yesterday.

There was the smallest attendance of the season, about 850.

The Montpelier & Wells River R. R. will run trains to Intercity park on Tuesday as follows: Leave Barre 9:15 a. m., 2:15 and 2:45 p. m., Returning after game.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Bob Dunbar, the sporting writer of the Boston Journal, remarks that Ed. Ruebach of the Chicago Nationals has won six out of seven games.

The Rutland team will come back at us Monday afternoon on the Intercity grounds, and on Tuesday, the Fourth, there will be two games with the scrappy team from across the lake, the morning game at 10 o'clock and the afternoon game at 3:15.

The Boston Post is wondering what will happen when Burlington, with their crack colored short stop, Matthews of Haverd, go up against the team in which Apperious plays. The Post recalls that while Apperious was playing with Georgetown University, he refused to play the Harvard game because "Mat" was in the game. The Post hears that Apperious will refuse to play.

J. J. Thompson having resigned as manager of the St. Albans team in the Franklin county league, that team is now reorganized.

Just bear in mind that Burlington, the "champions," have won one game out of five.

Two shut outs in succession for Rutland.

Coadley, last year's bud in the Rutland team, is not giving extra good satisfaction for the Athletics this year.

This "outlaw" Northern league, as the Massachusetts papers call it is coming in for a good deal of notice these days.

PLACED BOTH IN THE WOODS

Hope Young Confesses To Having Taken Baby.

ELMA TO SECLUDED SPOT

But She Says It Was After She Disposed of Minnie's Body—Declares Latter Died Despite Care.

Digby, N. S., July 1.—May Hope Young, who is charged with the murder of Minnie Ward, the six-year-old child found dead in the woods, has confessed that she left the child there as it was found, bound and gagged.

She declares that she did not kill the child. It died from cramps, she said, and so fearful was the woman that she would be arrested when it was found that she had the body of the child in the house that she took it into the woods. There she tied on the gag and bound the body with cords to carry out the story that tramps must have taken Minnie and little Elma into the woods.

Hope Young admits also that she tied Elma in the woods.

"I thought Elma would die and go to Heaven with Minnie," she said.

According to her story the child Minnie was taken suddenly ill with cramps. Kingsley Melanson had gone to his work. There was no one else in the house save the baby, Elma.

"I bathed Minnie's feet in hot water, but it did no good," she said, "and all of a sudden I know she was dead."

The woman explained her future action as due to her ignorance of the law. She thought the matter over and decided that if she tied the child in the woods, people would believe her story about the tramps coming to the house and probably carrying off the children.

Then she thought that her story would be all right if Elma should be found tied, too. But had no intention of killing the child. She left the gag off its mouth, but tied it, intending to tell where it was if people did not find it.

Then she came back from the woods, and after a reasonable time gave the alarm. It was not until the next day that the children were found, and the younger was barely alive.

Hope Young collapsed after telling her story. She had denied up to the time she was visited by Detective Power of Halifax and Sheriff Burnham that she knew anything about the murder, other than what she had told.

By gentle questioning the officers got her to admit certain things. Then they sent for Crown Prosecutor Dennison and F. W. Nichols, her lawyer, and to them the whole story was told.

Kingsley Melanson and Elmer E. Young are exonerated by the woman's confession of all complicity in the death of Minnie Ward.

Owing to her condition Hope Young was not questioned further yesterday. Today the officials will endeavor to get

WHY WE RECOMMEND ORRINE TO CURE DRUNKENNESS.

In taking the agency for Orrine, the liquor habit cure, we thoroughly satisfied ourselves that it was an article of genuine merit, and that the company, which is located in Washington, D. C., deals squarely and lives strictly to the guarantee. "If the cure is not made the money will be refunded."

Since selling Orrine numerous cases have come to our knowledge that have been cured of the horrible liquor habit by this meritorious article, which strengthens the nervous system and destroys the craving for whiskey, beer or other alcoholic stimulants. Orrine is prepared in two forms. No. 1 should be given to cure the patient without his knowledge. It can be put into coffee or food, as it is tasteless, colorless and odorless.

We think that when the excessive drinker is approached properly he will be willing to be cured. If he consents, purchase Orrine No. 2, which is put up in pill form. Either form sells at $1 per package. Step into our store and receive full information regarding Orrine, the remedy that usually cures the liquor habit. If you will write to the Orrine Company, Inc., Washington, D. C., they will send you a free book on "Drunkenness," in a plain paper wrapper.

We have great confidence that Orrine cures the drink habit, and highly recommend it to you. Red Cross Pharmacy, Rickert & Wells, proprietors, Barre, Vt.

another statement which will throw still further light on the mystery of the child's death. They are not satisfied with what Hope Young has told them yesterday.
